“ Belated condolences to the Orsini family on the passing of Greg, affectionately known as Gork, from all of us who had the pleasure knowing him while he was a fellow Annapolitan. He was one of the nicest guys any of us could have never known.

“ I remember the time when all of us girls pulled into Greg's driveway in a van. We were all dressed just a like, with red caps, matching tee-shirts, and capris. As we unloaded, Greg looked kind of shocked, stood there looking up the street, and down the street and said, "I hope none of the neighbors are out and saw this". We have many fond memories of you like this. Though we are not there in body, we are there in spirit. We will so miss you.
