“ Although, we did not know Bundy very well, our son, Travis did. He spoke so highly of Bundy. The thing I remember most of the times we were around Bundy is how he always paid attention to the children. He seemed to be a gentle, loving spirit. I know he will be missed greatly; however, his memory will live on in the hearts of all the people he touched. May you find peace and comfort in time knowing he was a caring man. Bundy was special to our grandsons, Landon and Tyler, and that makes him special to us. God bless.
