“ Any visit to see family in South Carolina would not be complete until Larry and I stopped by to see Guy and Pat at the furniture store in Myrtle Beach. Guy and Larry had so much fun catching up and telling old stories. I always enjoyed that so much. Guy was gracious, jovial, welcoming, and generous - he even helped entertain my then teenage son, whom he had never met, one afternoon while Larry and I went somewhere else. That certainly made big points with me! I'm grateful to have known him and the rest of his sweet family. My deepest condolences to all of you. Sending love and prayers for your comfort.

“ Always enjoyed spending time as a child going to Guy & Pat's and playing with Penny! . In some ways my sister and I saw him as a father figure out on his family's farm. He will be missed. I know him and my mom are having a good time " catching up" .
