GWENDOLYN P. HAGAN MURRELLS INLET Gwendolyn P. Hagan, 76, of Murrells Inlet, died Friday, November 23, 2007, at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center after a lengthy battle with cancer. Born November 7, 1931, in Henderson, Texas, she was the daughter of the late Robert Blanton and Mae Rothwell Payne. She was predeceased by a brother, Robert William "Bill" Payne. She is survived by her husband and true love of 56 years, Robert Lee "Bob" Hagan of Murrells Inlet; daughter Pamela Hagan Springs and her husband Dennis Holmes Springs of Murrells Inlet; son Robert Lee "Bobby" Hagan and his wife Nancy McAbee Hagan of Plano, Texas; brother James Carl "Jim" Payne and family of Greenwood, Louisiana; sister Carolyn Payne Freeman and family of Kilgore, Texas.; four grandchildren, Stephanie Springs English of Murrells Inlet, SC; Dennis "Denny" Holmes Springs of Murrells Inlet, SC; Christopher Blanton Hagan of Frisco, Texas and Tyler Lee Hagan of Murrells Inlet, SC; one great-grandchild, Grayson Elizabeth English, and numerous nieces and nephews. Gwen was a member of Belin Methodist Church in Murrells Inlet. Gwen was a source of great strength, beauty, and love for her family. She was a person of great character who passed on her values and beliefs to those around her. She was affectionately nicknamed "St. Gwen" by her husband and family, as she was truly the peacemaker and the kindest lady we all knew. The thing she loved most in life was her family. Her happiest times were when she was surrounded by them all and cooking her wonderful dishes for everyone. She will be greatly missed by her family and our world will not be the same without her. \tFamily will receive friends at Goldfinch Beach Chapel in Murrells Inlet on Sunday, November 25 from 5:00 pm-7:00 pm. \tFuneral services will be on Monday, November 26, 2007, at 11:00 a.m. at Belin Methodist Church in Murrells Inlet, with the Rev. Dr. B. Mike Alexander officiating. Burial will follow at Belin Cemetery, directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel. In lieu of flowers the family requests that memorials be made to the American Cancer Society, 950 48th. North, Ste. 101, Myrtle Beach SC 29577. Sign a guest book at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com
