“ Dear Patsy,

I remember your Mother and think of the two of you often. I can see her standing in front of the big two story house across for the Concord Church. Every Sunday when I go to Church I glance at the house and the three of you come to mine. Even though you left Concord you are still here in our thoughts. I am so sorry for you loss, but at age 93 that's a good life. Hope most of her later years were good.

In love and friendship,
