

Harold "Hal" Schweder

September 24, 1930 - March 9, 2021

Harold "Hal" Schweder succumbed to congestive heart failure on March 9, 2021 in Pawleys Island, South Carolina.

Hal's heart never failed when it came to rooting for his Yankees, his passion for his country and his love for his beloved wife of 62 years, Helen "Rifi" Schweder. Hal was fiercely proud of his Hungarian heritage, and was raised with his late sister, Lillian Leonard in Fair Lawn, New Jersey. Hal attended Staunton Military Academy in Staunton, Virginia, where he played linebacker and center on the football team and outfielder on the baseball team. He served in the United States Navy during the Korean War. He subsequently spent his career as a self-proclaimed "paper peddler" for Port Huron Paper Company selling the paper used by the financial industry in downtown Manhattan. He regularly hosted Thursday afternoon epic bacchanalian feasts at the Volare Restaurant in Greenwich Village which brought together many of his customers at one large table. Hal and Rifi moved from their home in Glen Rock, New Jersey to Pawleys Island, South Carolina where they enjoyed a 25-year retirement that included numerous vacations in the U.S. and abroad. Hal be sorely missed by Rifi and his many nieces and nephews.
