“ Hickmen Family, your sorrow is are sorrow, because we love you. Were praying for you in your time of need, remember God loves him too, and wanted him home again. Your mother is together again with the man she loves. He is in no more pain. Now you all have to be there for each other, thats what would make him very happy. Go to church together pray together and let your healing begain together and you will see Gods work be done. And something wounderful will come from something so sad, God promises us that all things come together for the good. God Bless you now and always, Love Jayne and megan##imported-begin##JAYNE JACKLING##imported-end##
