“ Harold was one of the nicest men I have ever worked for and had such wisdom to share. Seeing the Love between him and Nell made you realize what real love was and made you want to have that. I really hope that the Love and memories will keep Nell at peace through this time of great sorrow. Harold is truly among the Angels watching over us now. You will be missed in so many ways Harold. Thoughts and Prayers Always, Valerie Lee

“ My precious Nell, Your love and dedication to Harold over the last 59 years has taught us so much. Rest assured, you did everything possible to see him throughout this journey. Remember his last words to you, "I love you". May this sustain you as you walk this path. Harold fought till the very end, I believe out of sheer stubbornness, which is sooo like him! He loved you more than anything else and would never want to leave you. He must be in fabulous place of peace, light and love for him to finally leave us. I'm sure he is bragging to all the other angels before him about his wonderful life you and he shared. We are so thankful and blessed to have both of you as our southern family. Praying for your strength, for closure and in time, for your heavy heart to heal. We love you beyond words! All our love, Bone and Gary
