“ Miles and Mrs. Warlick, My thoughts and prayers are with you both at this time. You are a very special family and Miles, I know your dad was your basis for the great man you have become. Kim is no longer an angel alone, looking after you both...she now has her Daddy to guide her forever. WE grow older and at times lose track of time, but never fond memories....which I do have of the entire Warlick family.###imported-begin##Carmen Fendrick Sanchez###imported-end##

“ Years back, Theresa and I went to see "The Right Stuff" and ran into Melody and Eli at the ticket booth. So we sat together to watch the show. When "Chuck Yeager" is breaking the sound barrier for the first time and they are playing "appropriate-epic type music, Eli says, in his normal drawl,"I never heard music when I was going supersonic." Cracked us up. He was one of the good guys and will me missed.##imported-begin##Jay and Theresa Essington##imported-end##

“ Hello Melody and Miles-- I am so sorry to hear about your loss. Joe Clarkson told me that he and Harry and my Dad, Don Thompson, were some of the original Green Demons. My father passed away a few years ago, and his Air Force friends were in his thoughts until the very end. My mother Ruth and I are wishing you much strength and fond memories during this time-- Suzanne Thompson##imported-begin##Suzanne Thompson##imported-end##

“ Dear Melody, Harry and I were at U.Omaha oper. "Boot Strap" out of MBAFB. I was standing in line to pay my last tuition with not enough money. I turned around and asked Harry "Can you lend me $100." He said sure and handed me the money. Saved my hide. May the love of Jesus keep you. Jim##imported-begin##Jamie Liles##imported-end##
