ME

“ *Mickey was a fine example of a generation of Americans that we will never see again. He loved God, his country and his family. Mickey was a welcoming friend to me when I was a teenager and a welcoming father in law to me when I married his youngest daughter Kelly 26 years ago. I will miss his sense of humor as well as his advice on everything from life in general to how to fix almost anything on my Mustang.
As sorely as he will be missed, his memories will go on and I can often see his mannerisms in our daughter Ashton.
I'll close with God bless, don't wreck the Henry J and it's a dummy in the water!

PO

“ We are both saddened by Mick's passing, but at the same times we rejoice that he is no longer suffering and has arrived to a place where he will never know suffering again. He was such a great guy and we both feel blessed to have known him. We will be keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Love you!
