“ I knew Harry for almost 60 years and worked with him for 30. He ran the operations for more than 90 branches in 10 states and did it superbly. I treasure our friendship.

“ To one of the best neighbors in our old neighborhood. Mr. Williams was in the garden like my Dad and I remember watching them talk and laugh like the friends they truly were.
To the William's family, my sincerest condolences.

“ Our condolences to the family of Mr. Williams. My husband and I didn't know your loved one; however, reading his obituary revealed a couple things we had in common. He was born in Laurens, SC and we currently reside in Laurens, SC. Also, his wife was from Conway, SC and both of us were born and raised in the Aynor/Conway, SC area of Horry County. We have family members living in Conway or nearby cities as well as buried at Hillcrest Cemetery.

May wonderful memories of Mr. Williams bring all of you comfort and peace during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Windell & Marilyn Skipper .
