“ Bernice will be missed but her memory will live on through her many students like me. She was tough but always fair. I learned so much from her and even became an English teacher myself. Knowing her was a great privilege.
Thank you, Lord, for Bernice.

“ Bernice was a role model for so many of us who followed in her footsteps. We were all blessed to know her and work with her as an English teacher and an administrator. I also wanted to be just like her in many ways which is one reason I also became an English teacher.
