

Helen Christian Fuller

March 28, 1947 - February 11, 2023

Myrtle Beach.....

Helen Christian Fuller, age 75, passed away at Grandstrand Medical Center on February 11, 2023 with her husband, Charles Fuller, by her side.

Helen was born in Richwood, WVA on March 28, 1947 to the late Eugene and Helen Christian.

Helen was a wonderful loving wife, mother, grandmother, and sister. When she was growing up her family would come to Myrtle Beach every year for vacation. She loved the beach, especially the Inlet. This is one of the reasons they chose to retire to Myrtle Beach in 2004. She loved cats and enjoyed going to concerts with Charlie. Helen enjoyed watching college sports and playing card games with family and friends. She and Charlie enjoyed going out to dinner, trying new restaurants, and she especially enjoyed Friday night dinners out with family. Helen loved to travel and went on a couple of Disney cruises and to Disney World with her children and grandchildren. She had a well lived life, and she will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Survived by her husband of 54 years and best friend Charlie; sons Phillip Eugene Fuller and his wife Jennifer of New York City; Kirk Andrew Fuller and his wife Beth of Nazareth, PA; daughter Christal Lynn Fuller of Myrtle Beach; grandchildren Cadence, Tyler, Brianna and Chloe; Sister Sue Bartlett and her husband Nelson of Myrtle Beach; nephew Jacob.

Those wishing to make a memorial contribution are asked to consider donating to your church or favorite charity.

“Helen was always faithful in ordering flowers for her family buried in Richwood, WV. It was always a joy to speak with her as I placed the flowers for her on various family grave sites. I will miss our annual conversations around Memorial Day. Sending much love to her family. Please know that tears have been shed for her in Richwood.
