“ Justine, Maria, and Wanda... hoping this online post comes thru to you. I just found this online website posting of your mom and wanted to express my heartfelt sympathies. I have a lot of sweet memories of your mom from all the years of knowing her. I guess the one that sticks out in my mind at the moment is when Brian was a baby, about 7 months old. We were at my dads house in the back yard having one our family picnics. We had Brian's playpen set up in the yard and he was getting a little fussy, so your mom asked to hold him. She was holding him and talking to him so sweetly, that he calmed down and just stared at her, looking like he was fascinated with her accent and was anticipating her next words. I had to capture that moment and took a picture of them together.

Love to you all,

“ Dear Justine, I just saw your Mom's obituary in the paper. I have many memories of long ago.
Remember when I thought she only spoke Polish so when ever I was with her the only things i said were...Hello...How are you ?
Then , one day , out of the blue she started talking to you and every word was English.
I felt like a total fool.
She was a very hardworking woman...did she ever stop ? I hope she had some years to enjoy her life.
I am happy to see that she was near you.
I am also happy to have found you after all these long years.
I would love to try to find out how you are doing and try to catch up.
My e-mail...bjrgsullivan45@aol.com
With love...fond memories of all the wonderful years that we were such close friends and hoping we can be in touch again.
