“ Jim and family, I am truly sorry about your loss. I always thought a lot of Helen. Will not be able to attend services because of Stedman's Farmer's Day this week-end. Helen gave me the names of songs she wanted sung at her funeral several years ago and I still have it in my Bible.##imported-begin##Deborah S. Bunce##imported-end##

“ Dear Jim and family, we are so sad to hear of Helen's death, but joyful to know she has arrived in Heaven. She was a wonderful person to all that had the pleasure of knowing her. I hold in my memories: learning how to do ceramics because of her little shop in Stedman and the two of you being my Sunday School teachers for awhile at Stedman Baptist Church. God is so good to send such wonderful folks in to your life...even if it is for a short while...they can make such lasting and memorable impressions upon your own life. May you all find comfort in the days to come from our Lord Jesus. Love you all. Cathy & Hubert##imported-begin##Hubert & Cathy Wells McDonald##imported-end##
