“ Grandma's favorite color was always pink. Pastels were better than darker colors, but no matter what, there was pink. She was also an interior designer. The church asked her to help with the redesign, and I distinctly remember the moment when I realized that everything (and I do mean everything) in the sanctuary had hints of pink, both light and dark. The fabric on the pews was dark pink. The walls were very, very light pink. There were pink flowers by the pulpit. I remember smiling when I realized it then, and it makes me smile to this day. :)

“ Rory and Kim,

We remember both of your parents well and are saddened to learn that now Huddie is also gone. We'd like to believe that she is now with Roy. They were fine people. Please know you have the deepest condolences from both of us.

“ Our favorite aunt, and great aunt, has left us. My memories include a special woman who was devoted to her family and church, and always had a sweet smile for us. She made us all feel welcomed when we visited, and went out of her way to be kind to everyone. She had a wonderful spirit about her, and reached out to those who needed a friend. She will be remembered and missed by all who knew and loved her.

Our love to Kim, Duncan, Colleen, Alex, Kyle, Rory, and Janet.
