“ Words cannot express our great appreciation for all of "Mr. Henry's" South Carolina family. When distance and life kept us from seeing dad and making sure he was ok, he was surrounded by a family of angels who were truly doing God's loving work. It didn't just stop with dad though, your healing touch continued on through his future generations with your kind actions, words, thoughts, and prayers. We lost a cherished father, but gained an entire family. Our only regret is not being able to share you all with dad. We wish we could have been introduced to you by "Mr. Henry" himself. He would have loved the beautiful service and we couldn't imagine anything else more appropriate to remember him by. Nevertheless, God brought him home and brought us there to you. We will never forget you and we will be back.###imported-begin##Kim, Chris, and Kevin Geletzke and grandchildren###imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Henry was a special person, and he was loved by all his "family" at CCU. He would occasionally stop by my office just to talk - and he always wanted to make sure that I was doing all right. Henry will be long remembered for his caring and gentle nature.
