“ I remember as a kid being in Myrtle Beach one night in the middle of winter. My three uncles, J.C., Larry, and H.B., my cousins Buddy and Phil, and my father, Alvin, taking the nets out to catch fish and crab. It was very cold that night. I still remember Uncle H.B. taking several crab and putting one on each of his fingers to show that he was a tough U.S. Marine - just to impress a little nine year old boy.

Fortunately, I was able to remind him of that story last year just a few days before his passing as we watched the Atlanta Braves in a playoff game while in the hospital. He just smiled ear to ear and said, " I remember ". It was the last time I spoke to my uncle. It is hard to believe that a year has already passed. Oorah Uncle H.B. ! You were one tough Marine.

“ My deepest sympathies to the entire Richardson family. Mr. Henry was such a good, kind, sweet man. I would see he and Miss Mary in The Food Shoppe while they were enjoying lunch. Mr. Henry would have the sweetest smile when I would bring up Nash. Hold on to those sweet memories. Praying for peace for each of you. Rhonda Sanders Butler
