“ Kevin and Ruthie,
I just learned about Mr. Warren's passing. Visitation was over by the time I got the message from our church. I was one of his nurses at Conway Manor. I loved playing the piano for him. He always listened attentively and clapped while I played. He was a lovely man. He told me more than once that one day he was going to get a new body. Hallelujah, now he has one!! I'm sure he's rejoicing with Mrs. Warren right now at Jesus' feet. I do hope you all know that he was very special to me. I just smile when I think of him or tell my family about him. I'm so sorry for your loss, but he is in a better place. He assured me of that. I look forward to seeing him again one day myself. We will laugh and talk forever. I'm thankful to have had the opportunity to be such a small part of his life. He really was so appreciative of everything I tried to do for him. He would always say " God bless you" when I would leave his room. Anyway, God bless you both and rest in the hope that you will see him again one day.

I cannot begin to adequately testify how Mr. and Mrs. Warren impacted my life. They treated me as if I was their own son they treated me better than they treated Kevin Their testimony and love for Christ exemplified by their service to others has been rare. I miss them both Kevin and Ruthie, it was wonderful to see you and I am comforted of knowing their place in heaven with our Saviour
