“ To the Watts Family: ”

As the days and weeks pass, and as you return to life's routine, may you seek comfort from God's Word, the Bible. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

*My condolences,
SJB.*

“ The loss of one of our parents is beyond anything we have ever tried to envision it to be. The pain and on going grief makes us feel so alone. We Know we have to find a peace within and are thankful for those parents who taught us where to find it in our time of need. Each of you have family members and friends who are with you in spirit and pray that you will find the comfort you need within your own personal source of strength.

Our love and prayers to those of you that we know as our friends and those of you that we know as the wonderful Watts family and the memory of your beloved Don.

“ Dear Sarah and family, I feel like I lost a member of my own family. Don and Mickey had a friendship which so many people never have. They were like brothers and were there for each other in the good times and the bad times. We will all miss Don, but we have so many wonderful memories to share. I love all of you. Just remember that Mickey and Don are now together and that is comfort for me.
Love,
Jane

“ Dear Sarah, Duc, David, Bruce, Roxanne, Marianne, and Ted. Don was such a special man. His friendship with my mom and Mickey was a tribute to his character. I could sit and listen to Don and Mickey ramble on and on at the kitchen table. They were lifelong buddies. They would talk about their crazy roadtrips, the time Don left Mickey the "yankee" stranded with no boat, everything, and nothing.. I don't think there were ever two better kindred spirits among friends. I also remember how much he talked about you Sarah- the love of his life, and the joy all of his kids brought him. Don was a special man, and I am thankful to have had him in my life. I'm sure Mickey already has him fishing, or at least pretending to fish! I wish all of you some peace in this time of sorrow. You are all in my prayers.
Love, Britt
