“ Thank you for all the kind words and continued prayers we are receiving. It is very nice to see that Mom and Dad touched so many lives in a positive way. They were such wonderful parents with a firm but understanding parenting style. They made us who we are today. They were a little more firmer with me than Amber but I probably needed it. Their kindness continues as we only have to grieve once and that's what they wanted. Again thank you for all kind words and prayers we will be fine but it may take a while

“ Herman and Sherry were such wonderful people. I lived beside them for many years when we first bought our home in Knoxville. Our little Daisy dog would get herself locked in their garage in search of food. Herman and Sherry would have to come bring her home. “ Nonna and Pop were 2 of the kindest, honest, and loving people I have or will ever meet. Even though one of the 1st times I met them was when I almost got their daughter arrested, they never judged me and become like parents to me. They were at the hospital and held my oldest son on the night he was born and I have no doubt they would have been there to hold my 2nd and 3rd son if they had lived in Knoxville at the time. The world is a darker place without them but I find comfort in knowing that they are in Heaven holding my youngest son, Peyton right now (even though he was named after my favorite Tennessee QB). Take care of him and watch over us until we can all be together!❤️

“ I have had so many great memories of Herman and Sherry! Granddaughter Madison was the first to find Grace Lutheran and declare it to be her church. What a blessing for us as Herman became one of the best Elders ever to serve our church. Herman, Sherry, Amber, and Madison -- we loved them all. Heaven has received two wonderful people thanks be to Jesus Christ their Savior and Lord.
