“ Mrs. Ambrose was one of my all time favorite teachers!!! She taught me in the seventh grade, and she was not married at that time. I remember Cathy Brown(Mrs. Catherine Brown's daughter) and myself daring to go visit her at the house she moved into after she got married. She was ironing and invited us in. I remember Billy coming home for lunch, so we left. We all loved her! I saw her often at Hers and His salon, and we would always catch up. I am so very sorry for your loss!! I will also miss her. “ There are no words to express the sadness I feel now for your loss. When the pain of death becomes overwhelming, we can turn to God in prayer. The Bible tells us to "throw all of your anxieties on him, because he cares for you," (1 Peter 5:7). Take comfort in knowing that he loves us and that "one day he will wipe tears from our eyes, and that death will be no more,"(Isaiah 25:8). I hope this scripture gives you peace and endurance during this time of bereavement.
