“ Our deepest sympathies to Harold and the Anderson family. Carol was a kind and welcoming neighbor, who never passed by without stopping to chat, usually with a treat of some kind to share. Her red velvet cake was the best around! I've enjoyed her stories, her kind heart and most of all her friendship. She will be deeply missed.

Sincerely, Jill and Scott Law

“ To know Carol was to love her. I graduated with Harold, but became more acquainted with Carol through our PTO years at West Conway Middle. We shared a love for our boys: she had 4; I had 3. I last saw her in November at mine and Harold’s class reunion. No matter what she was going through, her faith in God never faltered. I am so glad God allowed our paths to cross. Our thoughts and prayers are with her dear family. Rachel and Johnny Allen
