“ The sound of Aunt Dixie's "Hello" always brought a rush of rich and good memories. When I replied, "Aunt Dixie?", she would cackle back "Hello, Sister",no matter how long it had been since we spoke. Months or years made no difference. Maybe my dad's kids were the only one's to still call her by that name. We thought it was her name. When I last saw her , her world had shrunken to her couch.I would sit and ask questions and she would tell stories of meeting Uncle Bobby and her life since....we would fall into sighs and cliches and aphorism and adages and laugh at ourselves sounding so wise.Elders are such great company...our parents times, without the burden of being one to us. Bless all your hearts. She and Uncle Bobby were so proud of you all. Always, Sister

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
