She would always say here comes Russell with her some fish. Russell you had a special place in mom's heart. She would say that you didn't forget she loved fish. “ I remember when I first started Conway Christian School I was so nervous because I only knew two people there. But then I met Holly and she was so sweet. She was always there to listen to no matter what you had to say. I have so many friends at Conway Christian even though we have lost contact like most do, for I will NEVER forget Holly. She is a true genuine friend that I am so grateful that I was able to call her my friend. Holly, I miss you so much. I am also very thankful that you are not in any more pain. I can't wait to see you in heaven. I am sure that you are looking down from that wonderful place smiling brighter than ever to us. We will all see you again in the future if we have Jesus in our hearts. I pray that if anybody does not feel that they are in that right place with our Lord, that today will be the day to make it right. We never know how long or how short of a time we have. Live like Holly, always smiling, laughing, and always having something to say. I pray that I will have more joy like I will always remember her having. I love you Holly.##imported-begin##Angela Atwood Miller##imported-end##

“ I remember the first time I ever met Holly at Conway Christian when she was a little girl. She had beautiful blonde hair and the most beautiful smile and was always happy. I watched her grow spiritually and had the privilege of teaching her when she reached high school. Holly had a contagious smile that I'll never forget. Though I am saddened she is no longer with us, I am encouraged and happy knowing that Holly had faith in God and is with Him and no longer suffering. My life has been blessed by knowing Holly. To all of Holly's family, please know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Robin Myers##imported-end##

“ Holly changed my life forever and I will never forget her. From the time I met her in Second Grade, we shared many memories together: slumber parties, crushes, friends, school, love, and racing wheelchairs through MUSC. I will always know her as the person who could smile through the worst and laugh at the best, who cared for others more than anyone can know, and who was a true friend. I know Holly is in Heaven where she is perfect and will never have to hurt again. I love you and miss you!! Our love and prayers go out to her family. We will never forget who changed our lives forever.##imported-begin##Jamie and Danielle Bellamy Lowrimore##imported-end##

“ Holly Rebecca Edge; June 18, 1983 - January 7, 2009 You are my inspiration. Today, I found out that I won't be able to see you again for a while, but, although I'm very numb, and can barely breath, I'm happy you're not suffering anymore. You and I have been close since the day I was born, and you were pretty much like my older sister. You were always happy, even if it wasn't real; and you always had a smile on your face, even if it was only for a moment. Holly, I love you more than anything, and I'm going to miss you until the day I'm with you again. God's got one strong soul walking with him now.##imported-begin##Kristen##imported-end##
