Love Letter To My Love,,Howard,
Dearest Howard,
It's been 4 weeks ago since the angels came and gave you your wings to fly, you'll never know my dear ,
how much my heart aches because you're not here,
I look around reminded of places, faces, sunsets, sunrises , stars above in the night I see the brightest light in the sky and I know it's you telling me me goodnight n sleep tight!
As I lay my head down to sleep I realize how much I miss you rubbing my feet!
My life was perfect for you and me together we brought out laughter, fun, smiles through our trials and I knew in my heart as long as I had you , you'd make sure we were going to be all right... I have never been so sad without you my dear , but tonight I pray and ask God to let me know you are by my side where bear and I go , we never said goodbye, because someday God will come send one of his angels where we will never depart he knew I gave you my heart and you gave me yours and until that day you're alive in my heart and when that glorious comes we will live our lives together forever, Never again will be apart... heaven is where we will be for eternity with a brand new start! close those beautiful eyes my true love and don't you worry, we have everything. A happy healthy life together the way it will be, forever ~ You & Me;) Look up my beautiful bride and you will see Jesus right by my side. I love you more than you will ever know, so close those eyes and night night you go. I am only a few miles in the heavenly skies watching over you as you close your eyes., Get some sunshine, smile more often, and enjoy yourself until you come to join me... Sweet dreams my baby girl, no worries in this beautiful world. love you more than ever before and soon you will see jesus n me knocking on your door!

with all my love, your loving husband ~ Howard~

His lil baby bear , worked hard to stay out of trouble and protected Him from the BIG DOGS!

What a beautiful love story Howard and Sharon experienced through their lives together! RIP ~ You are loved and will be missed by many. with our love,
