“ Dear Hendrick Family, I was deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. Hendrick. He was joy to care for as a patient. I always looked forward to his appointments. As a fellow football fanatic, I enjoyed shooting the breeze about Clemson football with him. I will miss him very much. My prayers are with you. Sincerely,
Dr. Alexander Anetakis##imported-begin##Alexander Anetakis,

“ I am so sorry to learn of Hoyt's passing. We saw each other at many Clemson events. Our last conversation was about Clemson's Reunion and Fathers Day being the same weekend. Not much would keep him away from Reunion, he said, but Fathers Day events were that important! My thoughts and prayers go to all family members.##imported-begin##Matt Watkins##imported-end##

“ Steve, Mike & Kent, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Daddy was confined to a hospital bed for three years and I don't think Hoyt would have ever wanted that! Give my condolences to all of your families and know my heart and thoughts are with you all at this time. Hold on to sweet memories and know they will bring all of you through this sad time. Take care and God bless you all!!!
