“ Mrs. McIntyre was my first great English teacher. I had her in sixth grade at Socastee Middle School. She inspired in me a love of writing that continues today. Such a lovely woman and truly great teacher. May her family have peace in her memory.

“ *Chip and Ray,
Our heartfelt condolences to you all in the loss of Mrs Annabelle!
She was a dear lady and we loved her and your daddy. I am honored to have known her in my early years of my life. God places people in your life in stages and her, Mr John, Mr Joe and Mrs Essie blessed our family in so many ways. Daddy would have been there for services if we had known! Please know you all are in our thoughts and prayers!

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Many years ago, I met Annabel and John. John was a project manager for Dargan Construction Company and I worked in the corporate office in Myrtle Beach with him. Annabel taught school in the area and she would accommodate John to events held by the company. The biggest event would be the Christmas party where employees and their spouses would dress up in their finest attire and enjoy a dinner at one of the fine restaurants in Myrtle Beach. Along with the dinner, Mr. Archie Dargan would welcome everyone and service awards would be presented to employees starting at 5 years, 10 years, 15 years, etc. I will ALWAYS remember your parents and am glad I got to know them. May they now be together again.
