“ I called her "my mother in love" She liked to laugh at that. Ms Bunny would write on my birthday cards, to her beloved Jan. Bunny loved me like a daughter and I told her many times, how I cherished my time with her. We loved watching Elvis performances together, mostly Aloha Hawaii, and never got tired of it. Ive missed her terribly, and loved her with all my heart. We shared our christian faith together, and the love of her precious son. A charming and poised southern lady.

“ Bunny was always a joy to be around. I always enjoyed visiting her every time I went with Mary Hopkins to take her a gift from our church. She hadn't been able to attend much these last years. She will be greatly missed.
