“ Agnes, You will be missed by me. I was so saddened when I found out about your passing. We shared lots of trips together. You,Alice were lots of fun. Remember our first meeting on trip to England,Scotland and Wales. The wonderful 20 day trip to China. And our last trip to Austria. Miss that Hey Sandy when I called you. Lots of things remind me of you. Still have the picture with you and I in front of my fireplace. You had that dress and big hat you bought at Harrods. You looked pretty good. I sure couldn't find anything like that to fit me,and of course those Laura Ashley stores. We had to go in all of them. Glad we became friends. You will always be in my heart. Know you are singing with the angles. I'm thankful to have met you. Sure we will meet again,until then keep singing.##imported-begin##Sandra J.Maxwell##imported-end##

“ We are the parents of Jennifer Wineberg Hutchinson, wife of Charels, Agnes' nephew. We had the pleasure of meeting Agnes when she came for Jennifer and Charlie's wedding in 1995. She sang for their wedding and we are so happy to have that preserved on a video as well as photographs. She had a beautiful voice and added so much to their wedding ceremony. She seemed like such a fun person and we can still see her dancing at their reception. I am sorry we never had the opportunity to meet her daughters, but Jennifer is happy to have met them recently and hope they will stay in touch. We are saddened by Agnes' passing and are thankful we had the chance to meet her and share some special memories with her at our daughter's wedding. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers and we extend to you our sincere sympathy. Sincerely,
Linda and Donald Wineberg###imported-begin##Linda and Donald Wineberg###imported-end##
