

Ina Cox

November 14, 1925 - August 23, 2013

Conway...Mary Ina Lee Thompson Cox, 87, passed away Friday, August 23, 2013 at Conway Medical Center.

Born November 14, 1925 in Bucksville, South Carolina, she was the daughter of Fred Thompson, Sr. and Mary Ina Owens Thompson. Aside from her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 65 years, Joe Dixon Cox, Sr., three brothers, Julious Stephen Thompson, Fred Thompson, Jr. and Charles Thompson. Mrs. Cox attended Winthrop College and graduated with a Masters of Education from the University of South Carolina. She retired from the Horry County School System where she was a principal early in her 35 teaching career. Mrs. Cox especially loved teaching first graders. A long time member of Maple Baptist Church and the Sally Powell Circle, she was active in her community using her talents with flowers to decorate her church and cooking to feed the needy through the Street Reach Program.

Surviving are three daughters, Daphne Volcy of Naples, FL, Deborah Bell and Cheryl Cox of Pawleys Island and one son, Joe Dixon Cox, Jr. (Diane) of Conway; one sister, Etah Kirkpatrick (Bennett) of Rock Hill, SC; one brother, Sidney Thompson of Myrtle Beach; seven grandchildren, NeCe McMahon (Jim), Georgiana Volcy, Andrew Volcy, Matthew Volcy all of Naples, FL, Mary Vaughn, Lauren Clothier (Steven) and Josh Griffith (Jen) all of Myrtle Beach; five great grandchildren, Joshua McMahon, Gavin Volcy, Daniel Volcy all of Naples, FL, Steven Clothier and Grayson Clothier of Myrtle Beach.

The family will hold private services.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to Maple Baptist Church, 4500 Hwy. 65, Conway, SC 29526.

“ She was my first grade teacher and the best I ever had. She left a lasting memory with me that I will carry on. She always had the time and the patience to work with you and always cared for each of her students. We were like her children and she made sure we knew it. She will be missed.

“ I am so sorry to hear about your mother, I am Jeanette Lawrence that use to be Jeanette Brasher, Also Linda Nelson sister. I live in texas and just recieved the news through the web site. I loved your mother and Dad and remember all of you when you were growing up as children. I lived at one time in a house there in front of your parents home. Always came by to see them when I made a trip to conway to give them a hug . They and I were always glad to see each other. I will always have fond memories of them and you all in my heart. Your mom was a great person and achieved many high marks of life and she contributed to many children lives in a special way with education. She was Linda first teacher to have when she went to school in first grade.

We lost our mom in October two years ago. Life will go on , but never be the same when you loose your mom, they are your best friend. all of your life and no one love is like theirs except God love is above theirs. If ever you are here in this area please give me a call and come by and soend the night too I have 2 bedroon waiting for any of you.

My address is
