

Iree T. Padgett

July 21, 1921 - August 5, 2010

Mrs. Iree Todd Parker Graham Padgett, age 89, of the Mt. Leon Community of Horry County passed away Thursday evening, August 5, 2010 at Loris Community Hospital following an illness.

Mrs. Padgett was born July 21, 1921 in Loris, a daughter of the late Joseph Townsend Todd and the late Leila Hardee Todd. She graduated from Loris High School and received her Bachelor's degree and her Master's degree from the University of South Carolina. Mrs. Padgett was employed for forty years as a teacher and principal in four Horry County Schools. They were Ebenezer Elementary, Sweet Home Elementary, Daisy Elementary, and Loris Elementary. She was very active in educational and community activities, having received numerous awards and honors on the local, state, and national levels. Mrs. Padgett was a member of the Board of Directors of the South Carolina Education Association for six years, President of the South Carolina Elementary Principals Association, Vice-President of the Southeastern Council of Elementary Principals, and served four years as South Carolina's Representative to the National Association of School Administrators in Washington, DC.

She was invited by President Gerald Ford to participate in the National Educator's Leadership Workshop at the White House. In 1980, Mrs. Padgett received the South Carolina "Outstanding Elementary School Administrators Award." She organized the first Girl Scout Troop and the first Senior Citizen's Council in her community. Mrs. Padgett was a member of the Living Water

Baptist Church where she served on the Personnel, Library, Bereavement, and Kitchen Committees. She was also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Loris Chapter #106.
