“ Irene was a fun friend from church and from craft activities. We did not see much of each other in recent years, but we always had a good laugh when we got together. You have had a great blessing in her for mother, sister, grandmother and great grand. God peace to all of her family, Rose Miller##imported-begin##Rose Miller##imported-end##

“ Irene's Family, Our deepest sympathy to your families. We find it hard to say good-bye to our loved ones so we say so-long. We don't really know your families but we knew Irene for about the last 4 or 5 years from the park and church. We will miss her. Irene was kind and considerate. She would listen to you and talk with you. She had many a wise word. She would talk of her family. She had many good words about them. But now she is home with Norman where she wanted to be. She is now in the Kingdom of God where God has her in his arms. Irene, we will miss you. I can see you at church in the Kingdom with your hats and fancy outfits giving communion. What a joy that is!
