“ We are sorry to hear of Aunt Irene's passing; however, we know she is dancing the days away with Uncle Lawson now. Anita spent alot of time with "Lucky" and Irene when she was younger and visited as often as she could. We spent part of our honeymoon at their house. The kids will always remember the dogs and the bird feeders and houses. She was a very loving and inviting person and will be missed.##imported-begin##Jim, Anita, Cassie and Zac Hynus##imported-end##
