“ Patty, and family of Irv Wain, Carson and I share in your sorrow, as long time members of Shepherd of the Sea, we can attest to your parents love and devotion and services to our church family and friends. We pray for your strength as you cope with your loss. Carson and I have lost both of our parents and we remember, and give thanks for all the lessons, laughter and love they gave us. Stay strong and pass those stories along to your children and grandchildren.

“ *Prayers and GOD's blessings to all the Family!
My late companion, 'Jack' Wilson & I were Church-close to both Irv & Mary. I sang in the Choir with Mary. Hopefully, you will find this as amusing as we did, at the time... The reason Christmas-eve the Choir has battery-operated candles, Mary set her music on fire from a lit-candle, neither she or anyone was hurt and we all had a laugh, including Mary. Never did ask Irv for his take on it, now that I think of it.
I'm sure everyone has fond memories to recall, I know we always enjoyed any and all encounters.
Fondly, Catherine Decker-McGill*

*Thanks so much for your thoughts and prayers. I remember a story about the battery-candles. She enjoyed choir so much, and Dad too for the shorter time he was in it. I remember Jack, and am very sorry about his passing.
God's peace, Patty Wain Smith*
