“ Aunt Isabelle, you were my idol during my growing years. I remember you bought all of my flower seeds that I was selling for school. Because of your act of kindness I received a white bible that I still have. You took me places that I would not have had the opportunity to go without you. Thank you for making my childhood a little better. I will miss you and I have always loved you##imported-begin##Diana Franks Mackey##imported-end##

“ Dear Grandma Wright, I love you and I wish I could have gotten to meet you before you got sick. I know you would have been such an amazing person to talk to and learn from. I know you're in heaven right now with Jesus and that you're looking down on all of us right now. We will all miss you here and I can't wait to someday meet you in heaven! I love you very much!##imported-begin##Patricia Wines##imported-end##
