My daughter asked me why did Mr Darryl have to die, he was such a nice man. My thought was, God needed a very special person and he picked Darryl Ray. I know that you miss Darryl tremendously. We miss him at Coca-Cola very much. My prayers are with you all daily. Carol Jordan Martin Branch Admin 27 years Coca-Cola Bottling Company###imported-begin##Carol Jordan Martin###imported-end##

“ To my Dearest Cousin Kim and family, I wanted so much to be there just to comfort you and to say my heart has broken for you and the boys too. I know Darryl was loved so much and will be missed by so many. Mom brought the video over and I found myself laughing and crying at the same time. What an amazing and awesome life you shared together and an awesome Legacy Darryl has left his boys! There are scripture that helps me get through the bad days and I hope you may find some comfort there as well: Corinthians 9:24 and Philippians 2:14-16 Philippians 3:12-14 Although -sometimes I get really confused as to why such things happen to such wonderful and kind people like you and Darryl, I have also found great comfort and strength in praising God in song through the really rough and confusing times....and knowing the powerful prayers of God's children and wise words of our family-like your mom and Aunt Lula and Grandma Car, have helped me so much until I understand better. Know that I am praying for you and your family daily. I know God will let us know someday why this has happened and we will see the big beautiful patchwork quilt made of such difficult times as sickness and death brings. Here is the song I like to sing from the dialysis chair on the rough days, I hope it may help comfort you as well: " I will follow you through dark disasters and sing Hallelujah through the pain and even in the shadow of death I will Praise you and even in the valley I will say Holy, My God you are worthy of all of my praise!" May God bless you and keep you and comfort you and may nothing steal your song my cousin. I love and Miss you so much. Hugs from me- Susan###imported-begin###Susan Follette and Family###imported-end###

“ Kim & family, I have so many wonderful memories of Darryl from our days together at South View High - that is a comfort at a time like this. In my memories, Darryl still lives on as a wonderfully funny and warm person. For me, he will always be young and energetic and have that engaging smile he so willingly shared with any and everyone. May GOD watch over you now and always and give you HIS peace that truly passeth all understanding.##imported-begin##Anita Brown Abjornson##imported-end##

“ Dear Kim and Family, My heart aches so much for your loss. You have been constantly in my prayers since I heard of the accident. I feel so blessed to have known Darryl. He was good friends with my brother, Greg, and I considered him a friend of mine too. The last time I saw him was in November at the benefit sing for Terrie's brother. He walked in with that great big smile that just seemed to radiate all over his entire being. It was so good to see him and have him surprise Greg and Terrie. I cannot imagine the hurt you are feeling but I do know that God will comfort you and your family. So many people are praying for you...people that did not know Darryl, but after hearing all about him, feel that they missed out on knowing this special man. Things that happen like this leave us so confused and hurt. I cannot explain why it happened, but I do know that Darryl touched so many lives during his life. What a legacy for his sons. All of his family and friends have been blessed to have had him in their life. You will continue to be in my prayers. May God bless you always.##imported-begin##Donna Nunnery Matthews##imported-end##

“ Darryl's Song He lived his life for Jesus This oh so faithful man, Always saying, "I love you Lord, Use me . . . Here I am. He spoke to God so reverently When he turned to Him in prayer, He would talk about his Jesus Anytime or anywhere! He said, "When I get to heaven All joy will be with me, For when God chooses to call my name My Master's face I'll see." As God looked down from heaven He loved him more each day, And thought I want him here with Me I'll send for him today. It happened oh so quickly No goodbyes were said that day, As an angel came to carry him This loving man away. But, weep not! Just turn and listen To the angels sing his song, For the celebration has begun To welcome Darryl home. Iona Williams###imported-begin###Chet Williams###imported-end##

“ Dear Kim, I feel right now, in the words of Lincoln, "how weak and fruitless must be any word of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming," and so I leave the work of binding and mending your heart and spirit to God, who alone can and will--though over time. As far back as Louise and I can remember, Darryl was always a wonderful salt-of-the-earth kind of person no matter when or where you encountered him. He was the perfect husband for you, Kim. And he lives on, not only in our hearts and minds but in Heaven, and you and your boys will see him again. Louise and I have known and loved you both for so long, our minds and hearts are overflowing with grief and love for you, Josh, Timothy, and for Darryl's parents and brother Terry. But we also have some great memories, made dearer I suspect by our being so far away from everyone for so long. Darryl, Louise, and I all went to elementary, junior high, and high school together. Darryl and I played little league together. And, of course, you have always been my most special and dearest cousin--aside from the BB gun incident in the summer of 1972 .: When we moved to North Carolina in September 1974, you were the first one at church to tell Louise that I liked her. You and Darryl also both helped me so much a few years ago when Carol died so tragically just by spending time with us and Kim and Danny and Joe and his wife up in Fayetteville. We wish so much we could be there with you right now, but I know your mama and daddy, grandma, and Michael & Penny, Mark & Brenda, and Paula & Jerry, together with countless friends and other family members will be surrounding and holding you and the boys up with the strongest of loves. I promise we will come down and see you when we make it home again. In the interim, we are up each night praying earnestly for you that God will see you through this and that He will in time bring to fruition his purpose in yours and the boys' lives. We also remember Darryl, talking of his goodness with emotion around the dinner table, and of his wonderful humor as we thumb back through the South View Senior High 1981 yearbook looking for those pictures of him in that ridiculously over-sized cowboy hat page 121 and of him striking that Mr. Cool pose at the front of the Playmakers Club beneath our Tiger's Paw staff picture page 90. We will miss him, but we will never forget him.##imported-begin##Ken and Louise Davis Maynor##imported-end##
