“ I was lucky to know Mr. JI. He was my dads best friend and was there everyday on the tobacco farm. He was a smiling face every time I came home to see my parents, he would give me a big hug and tell me he missed me. I sure do miss him so much, and so does my dad. We still talk about him, miss him in the garden and seeing his truck turn into our driveway. We loved you like family. Love you, April Durant.

“ We were lucky enough to have Mr. JI over for Sunday dinner a few years ago. He was one of the most interesting people we had ever met and his stories were so intriguing. I know that loved ones will find comfort in knowing that Mr. JI lived a full life loving and being loved by his family and friends.

Prayers and blessings to the family.
