“ Gaye, At moments like this, I wish I could be down in South Carolina to give you a hug and share with you how much your and James's friendship meant to me. I appreciate Homer Burrougs sending me an email, so that I can at least communicate with you at this time. I am sorry to hear of James's death, and I shall pray for you in this time of bereavement and healing from your own shoulder break. May God be with you, Lois Ann##imported-begin##Lois Ann Paul Carson##imported-end##

“ Dear Gaye and family members, I am very sad to hear of James passing. It seems such a short time ago that James and I were at the Citadel. I remember his smiling face when would see each other in those "trumatic" times at the Citadel. You are in our prayers. May God bless you, Sincerely, Homer and Chris Burroughs##imported-begin##Homer Burroughs##imported-end##
