“ So very sorry to hear of Jack's passing. Spent many wonderful afternoons and evening at the house on Hallhurst in Fairmont with Barry. So many memories of summer days at the Fairmont Field Club pool with Barry (with Judy and Linda there as well). You were all blessed to have such a great father. I have no doubt that his spirit and teachings will live with you for the rest of your lives. My deepest sympathies on your loss.

Barry, if you get a chance, please look me up on Facebook at either Neal Jay Hamilton or Quiet Heroes. Hope our paths cross again in the future.

“ I remember Mr. Haugh with pleasant memories as my basketball coach in junior high. He was a friend of my uncle, Dale Noble and I remember being with them on several of their visits. He was a gentle man and devoted teacher. I am sure everyone misses him. I lost contact with him many years ago and I am glad he lived a great long life.

Sincerely,

Dr. Edward W. Schneider

“ My sympathy to Jack’s family. My family (the Summers Haugh family) always enjoyed visiting the Haugh family relatives in Mannington. Jack and his brother, Bud, were about the same age as my brothers, Max and Jim -- older cousins and older siblings that I have always looked up to as heroes and as great examples of personhood. Jack’s Dad, (my Uncle Kiddo) was always good for a laugh and took me fishing several times on Buffalo Creek which was near their Mannington home.

Several years ago, my wife (Terry) and I were vacationing at Myrtle Beach and had lunch with Jack. We both enjoyed reminiscing about the many common memories we had about Mannington, Grandma and Grandpa Haugh, and other family lore.

May he rest in peace.

“ I have had the privilege to know Patti and Jack for over 20 years> I have never seen a more devoted and loving couple. They complemented each other so well. Jack was a wonderful man who brought happiness and kindness to everyone he met. The first time I played golf with Jack I asked did he play college sports because he was such a gifted athlete and in his unassuming way he said he was a college quarterback. There are some people that come into your life that touch you and makes the world a better place. Jack was all of that. He and Patti had such a wonderful, loving family and I know they know that their parents left them a great example how to live a fulfilling and meaningful life. I will miss him very much
