“ I am Cheri Wilson living in florida. I am from West Virginia originally and always look in the logan banner to see if I can recognize anybody that might have passed on.

I am really sorry about the death of jackie, that is how I knew him and was their family's neighbor in Cow Creek when i was a young girl and then moved to switzer. I still remember my childhood days and I remember MILDRED, ARNOLD JACKIE, JOHNNY AND BARBARA BECAUSE ALL of us kids USED TO PLAY TOGETHER ON MY GRANDPARENT farm.. Time sure passes by. God Bless all of you all and tell them I said hello. My parent were james and jackie wilson and they have passed on also.

“ Although I did not know Mr Meadow personally, I wanted to extend my condolences to his family and friends on the loss of their dear one.. May you, in your time of sorrow take comfort in these encouraging words found at Psalms 46:1 which assure us that, "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during difficult times". You are all in my thoughts.

“ My sincere condolences to the Meadows Family. May you find comfort during this very difficult time in your lives. The loss of a dear loved one is heartbreaking, but we can find comfort from Gods word. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 tell us that Jehovah is the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort and he will comfort you during your time of sorrow. John 5:28,29 assures us of a promise made from God that our dear loved ones sleeping in death would hear the voice of his son Jesus and come out of their memorial tombs. God promises to resurrect them back to life on a paradise earth where sickness and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4- death will be no more; Isaiah 25:8-Jehovah God will swallow up death forever). What a wonderful promise to look forward to seeing our dear loved ones again on a perfect paradise earth. Psalms 37:10,11&29- meek and righteous will possess the earth and live forever upon it. Please read these scripture along with your personal copies of the bible and for more information on the hope for those we have lost in death go to jw.org

Mary, I am so sorry. I will miss talking to him and seeing him. He always talked about you and worried. I would look forward to when he would bring Sylvia for her bath and shave. He would stay for a while and we had some great conversations about you and all kind of the things. He loved that cat. I would get a kick out of the stories he told about her. He will always be in my prayers has he has been.. for many years. He lit up the room when he comes in. I truly did love him. Karla Comer

Praise The Lord Man Anyhow!!! My uncle Jack was always so special in that way, he always loved and cared so much for Mary and our family and I have so so many fond and vivid memories as a child of my dearest aunt and uncle doing what he did best. He is so special to me that words cannot ever describe the feelings we had since I was born and the bond we had. He could light up the room anywhere anytime and never met a stranger. There are so few people in this world that are so loving, caring and willing to do anything like him for anyone and never ask for anything in return. A decorated Vietnam War Veteran that I thank so much for his service and the help and support he provided to the veterans that he served with and loved throughout the years. A retired WV Coal Miner and supervisor that loved his men and would do anything for the company even risking his own life and health. God bless my uncle Jack Dale Meadows he is with the angel band and will be shining his bright light on me and for the rest of my life and others for eternity, love your one and only nephew Brian Dale Meadows forever and always uncle!!!!
