“ 22 years ago when I first showed up at School #3 as a bright eyed naive first year teacher remember jacks being so welcoming and nurturing even though I wasn't even in her grade level. That's just the kind of person she was. And even when I left my School 3 family returning to go on our Disney Trip with her and others is a memory I will cherish! You will be missed but never forgotten!!!

“Jacki was devoted, loving strong, and fun but the word that best describes her was compassionate. We all have compassion but Jacki LIVED compassion. Anyone who has ever hurt in any way around her knows how she gave of her time, energy, and love to support them and not for the moment but for as long as we needed. She was so unselfish with her time and love. She will be miss by so many people but I pray that each time I think of her I will be inspired to live compassion as she did.

Joe, she loved you as her true love. Sailing was not always smooth but that is the joy and occasionally the pain of loving an Irish woman. I cannot imagine your pain but may God comfort you as only he is able.

Jenna and Krystle, the pain is great. Try to take a little comfort in the love and support of all those who were touched by your mother's love. She loved you so much. She raised you to be strong women, but even Jesus wept at the loss of someone he loved. Remember how she loved life and hug the ones she most adored, her grandchildren.

Second Corinthians chapter 1 verses 3 and 4 states: "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God." May we live this, through the strength given to us by God, as Jacki did.
