

Jacob Perry-Lee Causey

February 11, 1999 - May 23, 2016

On Monday, May 23rd, Jacob Perry-Lee Causey, 17, of Murrells Inlet went to be with the Lord after sustaining injuries in a boating accident near the Wacca Wache Marina. Jacob, affectionately known as “Scrappy,” was the son of Sam Causey and Bobby Causey both of Murrells Inlet. Jacob’s enthusiasm for life and love for Christ enabled the Calvary Christian School junior (and aspiring game warden) to impact the lives of many—from his family and schoolmates to his friends in his truck club. There were four things in life that Jacob loved the most: his little mama, his girlfriend Ashlyn Ethridge, his truck, and a good fishing trip (or hunting, depending upon the season). His easy-going spirit, his gentle-giant-like nature, his fierce loyalty, and ability to carry on a conversation with everyone he encountered made Jacob one of the best friends anyone could have.

Jacob was preceded in death by great-grandparents Joseph “Deck” and Bernice “Granny” Patrick and Herman and Aleene Gordon; grandfathers, Bobby P. Causey, Sr. and Gerald Lee Gordon and uncle Bubba Gordon.

A visitation will be held on Friday, May 27th at First Baptist Church of Murrells Inlet from 1pm to 3pm, followed by the funeral service at 3pm.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Jacob's scholarship fund at Calvary Christian School or to his church, First Baptist Church of Murrells Inlet.

“ I don't think I have ever met a young person who loved Jesus and lived his life for him like Jacob. My life and all the lives Jacob touched were greatly Blessed. Jesus and Jacobs faith radiated in his countaince. I only wish that I had more time with him. God Comfort his family and hold them in your loving embrace as they journey through this life until they are reunited in Heaven. Gone to soon but never forgotten. His light will shine on forever in the hearts and minds of everyone that Jacobs life touched. Lord thank you for our time on earth with Jacob. Looking forward to seeing him again in our heavenly home. Until then Jacob soar on Angels wings. We love you "Scrappy"

*“ We were so sorry to here about Jacob. There are no words to describe the pain and loss you are going through. We certainly know that loss after losing Robbie in an accident. Hardest thing we've ever been through. The only comfort is from the Lord and knowing Jacob knew him as well. Robbie had gave his life to the Lord as well and that's what gets us through. I know Robbie thought a lot of Megan as they went to school together. We haven't seen all of you in awhile and wanted to come today, but just didn't think we could handle it. We are praying for all of you and will continue for the days to come.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Jake last year while visiting my family. I'm Tyler Hunt's mamaw from West Virginia. What a wonderful young man! His face lit up when he smiled, he had a kind demeanor and was an all around gentleman. I enjoyed talking to him. He won my heart! I'm praying for the Causey family during this time as well as for his many friends and his girlfriend. We'll see him again one day but for now he's resting safely in the arms of Jesus. Alice McCoy

“ Dear Sandy, I was so sorry to hear about your son, Jacob. I know what you are going through because I lost my son Joey, he was 16. I am praying for you. Nothing I can say to make the pain go away, just know he is in Gods arms and he is smiling down on you. I know I haven't talked to you in a while. I remember our friendship during school. With deepest thoughts and love, Joanne Macklen Causey

“ Jacob & my son Tanner are in Southern Dresms together. Just 2 months ago today, he drove 2 hours to Tanners birthday party. That's a true friend to drive that distance to a party. We enjoyed having him & Ashlyn. He was a pleasure to be around. We are so sorry to hear of his passing. May God comfort you now and the days to come.
