

Jacqueline Eldridge

May 29, 2011

Myrtle Beach

Jacqueline Dyson Weavil Eldridge

Jacqueline Jackie Dyson Weavil Eldridge age 85, passed peacefully at Grand Strand Health Care after a lengthy illness on Sunday, May 29, 2011.

Born in North Wilkesboro, NC, she was a daughter of the late Culvery Shing and Ila Gant Dyson. Jackie was retired from R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. She was of the Methodist faith. She loved gardening, dancing and the Atlanta Braves. She was a volunteer at Forsyth Memorial Hospital. Jackie was preceded in death by her husband, Byron Dewitt Weavil and Johnnie Eldridge; a brother, Bryce C. Dyson and a granddaughter, Lori Lynn Bowman.

Survivors include two daughters, Sandra Weavil Bowman of Morehead City, NC and Janice Weavil Simpson and her husband Paul of Myrtle Beach, SC; three grandsons, Chris Bowman of Morehead City, NC, Greg Simpson and his wife Shelise of Myrtle Beach, SC and Eric Simpson and his wife Kati of Myrtle Beach, SC; five great-grandchildren, Savannah, Kaleb, Irie, Cooper and Lily Simpson; brothers, John Dyson and his wife Phyllis of Winston, Salem and Harold Dyson of Kernesville; sisters, Mrs. Geneive Butcher of Harmony and Mrs. Nancy Essick of Clemmons.

A graveside service will be held at 11:00 AM Wednesday, June 1, 2011 at Garden of Memory Cemetery in Walkertown, NC with Ronnie Butcher officiating.

Memorials may be made to Grand Strand Healthcare, In Memory of Jackie Eldridge, 4452 Socastee Blvd. Myrtle Beach, SC 29588.

An online guestbook is available at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.