“ Dear Sandee, You are in my thoughts and my prayers. You and Al have been such good friends over the years and whenever I referred to you, it was always Sandee and Al. You were like two peas in a pod, always side by side. Although you were both so happy to move south and start your life together as retirees, I was sorry to see you move. Occasionally, I would drive by "the homestead" and remember the times when I would "pop in" for a quick visit. I miss that and I miss you. Take care and I hope to see you soon.##imported-begin##Phyllis Szewczyk##imported-end##

“ Dear Sandee and Family, First let me say that I'm so deeply sorry for the leaving of Jim as we known him here on earth. I didn't want to used the word lost, because Jim will never be lost, for he always will be remembered, as we will meet again in another place. I never had the change to thank him for giving myself and especially Bob a new life. Jim gave his all that he had to give, with the support and deep friendship. This can never be replaced for there is no one else like him. I know he is looking down at us all, with a great big smile and telling us I'm happy once more, for my suffering is over and I can live life again as I look forward to meeting everyone again. Sandee here's a special prayer Safely Home I'm home in heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace for forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade? Oh! but Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still; Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remaineth- You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come! God bless you all, Carl Bisailon###imported-begin###Carl Bisailon###imported-end##
