“ Dear Brewer family, It's hard to lose someone your've loved so deply, and its impossible to imagine what your lives will be like without your husband, father, grandfather, uncle, father-in-law's . . . love and companionship. But even though some things won't be the same without him, you can always count on the love and concern of those who care so much about you and know he is at peace and with God. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Bonnie Coast##imported-end##
