“ Today I learned of Mike's passing from a mutual friend. To the family I would like to extend my belated condolences. I pray you will allow God to help all of you during this difficult time. Your loving memories will keep him alive forever in your hearts. Mike was the type of person who had natural charisma and compassion for his friends and for mankind. Every day his life was lived to the fullest extent and with gusto. Mike and I shared a special and unique friendship which spanned many years and the paths our lives took us always led us back to the first time we looked into each other's eyes and knew we were "in it together for the long haul." For no matter how, why and the length of time we were out of touch for various reasons, each time we came together again, it was always with passion, joy, absolute oneness, and total understanding. I will forever be grateful for what Mike and I shared and for the special bond we never lost.##imported-begin##Elizabeth Williams##imported-end##

“ I am saddened to read of Mike's passing. He was a true inspiration and gallant gentleman during our time of acquaintance. He introduced me to so very many "Southern Traditions"--shag lessons, cornbread, "REAL" southern fried chicken, Dairy Queen ice cream and romantic picnics on the Blue Ridge Parkway. I will never forget his love and zest for life. My cherished memories of our special times will live in my heart forever, just as I am sure they will in the hearts of his family. God bless and enfold all of you during this time. Taylor Bovender Heinz Winston-Salem and Myrtle Beach##imported-begin##Taylor Bovender Heinz##imported-end##

“ David and Mark: I met your brother in the late 70's and we continued our friendship through the mid 80's. After moving to England, I lost touch with Mike, but never forgot his radiant personality and the great times we shared. He always made "every day life" an adventure and I will forever treasure our loving relationship. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. “ Dianne and family, I am very sorry to hear about Mike. I haven't spoken to him in a few years and I regret that. He was a good person with a big heart. He was always ready and willing to share his vast knowledge of irrigation with his customers and colleagues and was genuinely interested in helping people. He had a great sense of humor and found ways to use that in everything he did. I always enjoyed his company and the easy way he interacted with friends and customers. I know he'll be missed and I want you to know I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this sad time. I'll remember Mike as a fun-loving, caring person. Sincerely and in sympathy, Mike Young##imported-begin##Mike Young##imported-end##
