“ It was real hard to hear that Uncle James had passed away. I had really gotten to know him a lot better during his stay at the hospital and at Bethea Home. No matter what was going on he could always make you laugh. He will really be missed!

“ Our hearts are full of sadness in losing such a wonderful friend. James gave us such joy in his stories, laughter, smile, and friendship. We will miss him terribly, but he will always be with us when we look up at the "full moons," which we talked about often. Our love and sympathy to his family and friends.
