“ One of the first things Jim did when he came to the Grand Strand was join the local chapter of the American Culinary Federation. He immediately plunged in and volunteered for whatever job needed done, and most recently he was elected to chair our program committee. He did an excellent job. I know he also devoted one day a week to helping out at The Community Kitchen. I'm going to miss him very much. Jim was a sweet, sweet guy.##imported-begin##Becky Billingsley##imported-end##
