“ Jim you will be missed. It only seems like yesterday that I was asking for Tango Charley on the sound powered phone and messing with Derik Asis. You will always be remembered in my heart as a good friend.

“ To Jim's Family: Please accept my sincere condolences about Jim's passing. I served with Jim on the USS Roanoke from 1983 - 1985. Jim was a good shipmate and he always had that ability to "march to beat of his own drum." More recently this past year, he got me connected with some old shipmates on the USS Roanoke group on Facebook where he was one of the leaders. I am very saddened to hear about Jim passing at such a young age. I will continue to think of him and keep his memory as a good Navy man with me always. -

“ You will be missed Jim. You had the best sense of humor and had to be one of the kindest, gentlest men I knew. Heaven has just acquired another angel and if it didn't have a sense of humor? It's got one now. Rest well - you are loved by many.
